The astounding success of Xavier’s Commerce Society is a direct result of the unfailing support and guidance of our Principal, Rev. Dr. Felix Raj, SJ. His immense faith in our abilities has been the guiding light to our success. The blessings, encouragement and support of Rector and Vice Principal (B.Com Morning) Rev. Dr. Dominic Savio, SJ has been instrumental to the growth of this society. The Society is also indebted to Professor M.M. Rahman, Vice Principal (B.Com Evening) who has always been with us in all our endeavours and has shown unflinching faith in all that we have set out to do. The support of the Prof. Swapan Banerjee, Dean (B. Com Morning) and Prof. Amitava Ghose, Dean (B.Com Evening) has also been a pillar to our growth. Furthermore, our events would have remained ideas without the contribution of our esteemed sponsors, and as such we appreciate the support and trust they placed in us.

What began as a meeting point for like-minded young individuals has now evolved into a pro-active community dedicated to inculcate in today’s commerce students the skills and talents required for excelling in the corporate world. From a seed of an idea in a conversation, the society has grown to become a benchmark for professionalism in the college. There has been much to dream and great steps have been taken towards development. Yet there is far more to do, far more to accomplish, and the path to our destiny leads us forward every day.
