

Adult & Continuing Education

Course Outcome:

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Recall the phases and movements in Extension Education and Services in India pre and post-independence.
2. Evaluate the significance of Extension as the "Third Dimension" of Higher Education in the Indian context.
3. Analyze the new approaches in Extension Education and Services in India and their impact on the adult and continuing education sector.
4. Examine the role of National Open School in providing education and training opportunities to the adult population.
5. Demonstrate an understanding of field organization practices in the context of Extension Education and Services.
6. Appraise the need, concept, and types of lifelong learning programs available in India.
7. Conduct comparative studies in Adult Education by analyzing various parameters, trends, and data for informed decision-making.
8. Apply Bloom's taxonomy to develop critical thinking skills and creative problem-solving abilities in the field of Adult and Continuing Education.

Select Language

Powered by  Google Translate

