OBJECTIVE

Since I am inspired by the Development Communication I fell in love with the things that encourage me and inspire me to contribute something to the society especially to the ones who face injustices every day and is deprived of dignity. I have the experience of travelling with Mr. Harsh Mander who is an author, columnist, researcher and renowned Social Activist. Being part of the profound campaign of Karwan e Mohabbat in solidarity with the victims of communal or religiously motivated violence. I dream and define my life by identifying myself with those weak and the deprived of social justice.
