

Ms. Ankita Samanta is a faculty member of the Postgraduate and Research Department of Commerce (M. Com.), St. Xavier's College (Autonomous), Kolkata, under the University of Calcutta. She joined the department in July 2019. She has completed a work experience of 5 years. Ms. Samanta is a Xaverian who did her B.Com. (Hons.) (with specialization in accounting and finance) from St. Xavier's College. She joined the department shortly after completing her M.Com. (Specialisation in Accounting & Finance) and securing the first rank in first class from the University of Calcutta. She is currently pursuing her Ph.D. from University of Calcutta. She is fond of updating herself with different quantitative techniques in research and participates in different workshops regularly for honing her skills. She has a research interest as well and has publication in UGC-CARE listed and international journals. She has also got the opportunity to act as a resource person in Calcutta University-Calcutta Stock Exchange Centre of Excellence in Financial Markets in her short career span. She is enthusiastic about college activities and has also acted as active working committee member and co-convenor for international conference organized by the St. Xavier's College (Autonomous), Kolkata.