COURSE TITLE: American Literature

1. Remember: Recall key plot points, character traits, and historical contexts of selected American novels and short stories.
2. Understand: Describe thematic concerns such as race, class, gender, morality, and identity as represented in American literary texts.
3. Apply: Use literary concepts (e.g., irony, symbolism, narrative voice) to interpret character development and thematic progression.
4. Analyze: Compare how different authors use narrative techniques to critique American society, challenge norms, or evoke empathy.
5. Evaluate: Assess the ethical and cultural implications of literary representations in texts such as To Kill a Mockingbird or A Good Man is Hard to Find.
6. Create: Produce original responses—analytical, creative, or reflective—that demonstrate nuanced understanding of American literary traditions and innovations.
