

Course Outcomes:

1. Recall important historical facts, events, dates, personalities, and movements across different regions and time periods and Identify key sources and terminologies used in historical studies.
2. Demonstrate comprehension of diverse historical interpretations and perspectives and be able to explain historical processes, cultural developments, and social transformations.
3. Apply historical knowledge to contemporary social, political, and cultural issues to draw parallels and contrasts.
4. Use historical methods to interpret records, archives, inscriptions, and oral traditions.
5. Differentiate between primary and secondary sources, and evaluate their reliability, bias, and significance.
6. Examine the causes and consequences of major historical developments through comparative analysis and be able to critically assess historical arguments, theories, and debates, and evaluate their relevance to current discourses.
7. Be able to create and present historical analysis and interpretations through essays, presentations, digital media, or exhibitions.