

COMPULSORY ENGLISH

1. Remembering:

- Recall the key themes and messages from various prose and poetry texts studied in the course.
- Identify the correct usage of prepositions, articles, and phrasal verbs in sentences.
- Memorize a wide range of vocabulary to enhance language proficiency.

2. Understanding:

- Interpret the deeper meanings and nuances in prose and poetry texts.
- Comprehend the rules and usage of direct and indirect speech in different contexts.
- Analyze the structure and components of formal letters for effective communication.

3. Applying:

- Implement the rules of letter writing to draft formal letters for different purposes.
- Utilize appropriate language and tone for redressing grievances and expressing acceptance in letters.
- Apply the correct grammar rules and vocabulary while writing reports and communicating ideas.

4. Analyzing:

- Evaluate the effectiveness of using formal language and tone in various types of written communication.
- Compare and contrast different writing styles in prose, poetry, and formal letters.
- Analyze the impact of using direct and indirect speech in conveying messages effectively.

5. Evaluating:

- Critique the language and structure of written pieces for clarity and coherence.
- Assess the efficacy of using specific vocabulary and phrasal verbs in enhancing the quality of writing.
- Judge the appropriateness of language and tone in different types of written communication.

6. Creating:

- Develop coherent and well-structured formal letters addressing different purposes and audiences.
- Craft engaging and expressive prose and poetry pieces with clear themes and emotional impact.
- Construct reports with accurate information and organized content using formal language conventions.

Select Language ▼

Powered by  Google Translate

