

Connection through Communication : The Building Blocks of Communication

Course Outcome:

1. Explain the communication process and identify key components involved in effective communication (Knowledge)
2. Demonstrate the ability to differentiate between verbal and nonverbal communication and understand their importance in conveying messages (Comprehension)
3. Apply strategies for effective reading to improve reading comprehension and enhance overall communication skills (Application)
4. Analyze the differences between British and American English, and identify the appropriate variety for different contexts (Analysis)
5. Demonstrate improved articulation skills in spoken communication through practice and feedback (Synthesis)
6. Collaborate effectively in a group project or teamwork setting, demonstrating effective communication and listening skills (Evaluation)
7. Enhance listening comprehension skills through active listening and interpretation of verbal cues (Application)
8. Develop confidence in communicating ideas and participate in personality development activities to enhance overall communication skills (Synthesis)

Select Language

Powered by  Google Translate

