

Course Outcome for Environmental Education:

1. The student will be able to remember the different terms and definitions associated with Ecology, its components and also the details of ecosystem and different bio diversities. They will be knowing the different aspects of environmental laws.
2. They will be able to understand the burning issues of global environment and the different types of pollution and its mitigation.
3. They will be able to apply these skills in terms of biodiversity conservation at different levels.
4. The students will be able to analyze critically the detailed aspects of national and international environmental policies.
5. The students will learn from this course the phenomenon of global sustainability and evaluate the different national initiatives like Swacch Bharat Mission, Beti Bachao Beti Padoos etc.
6. The knowledge of good sanitation practice will help to create a better community in the neighborhood.