DEBARRED RULES AND GRAFTING RULES
FOR UG STUDENTS UNDER THE NEW CURRICULUM INTRODUCED
FROM THE ACADEMIC SESSION 2023-2024

1. Debarred Rule:

Students who are debarred in one or more papers in any semester may be allowed to appear for the debarred paper/s subject to the following conditions:

- A student must have met the minimum attendance requirement in the debarred paper/s.
- A student who has the required minimum attendance, can write the debarred paper/s in the next appropriate semester. For example, a student debarred in paper/s in semester 1 may appear for the paper/s in semester 3.
- The debarred paper/s of the penultimate and final semesters can be written during the supplementary examinations.
- For each debarred paper, a student has to complete monitored library work as decided by the Vice principals of the respective departments.
- The student will be evaluated only in terms of semester examination for the debarred paper. The original CIA marks will be carried forward.
- Fees as applicable will have to be paid.

2. Grafting Rule:

Grafting of marks will not be allowed under the New Curriculum introduced from the academic session 2023-2024.
