

Dr. Shivaji Banerjee

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Dr. Shivaji Banerjee is the former HOD of Management in the Department of Commerce (Morning) at St. Xavier's College (Autonomous), Kolkata. Dr. Banerjee received his Ph.D. from the University of Burdwan in 2012 for his contribution to stress management. His thesis, "An Empirical Study of Personality Types and Stress Propensities of College Teachers in Kolkata District of West Bengal," has been widely acknowledged in academic circles and is strongly recommended for publication. Dr. Banerjee's current research focuses on modelling behavioural trajectories exhibited in organizations. To be more precise, he is currently investigating the psychological response of employees to unfurl a causal relationship concerning their environmental cues. With an overall teaching experience spanning sixteen years, Dr. Banerjee has been associated as an accomplished professor of management in versatile departments of the college itself, while serving as a guest faculty of management in other reputed institutions such as the Department of Commerce and Management at St. Xavier's University, the Department of Business Management, Calcutta University, Department of Commerce, Calcutta University, Indian Institute of Social Welfare and Business Management (IISWBM), Institute of Business Management, Jadavpur University and the School of Management Sciences, Indian Institute of Engineering Science and Technology (IEST), Shibpur. A management aficionado, Dr. Banerjee has an array of scholarly publications in national and international peer-reviewed journals of repute. Known for his practical and case-oriented style of pedagogy, his experience transcends beyond the classroom and onto corporate floors. His management trainer and consultant role in leading corporate houses such as Ambuja Neotia Group, James Warren and Ubique Systems accentuates this.
