

Educational Management

1. Remembering: Students will be able to recall the different types of educational management including administrative, instructional, and financial management.
2. Understanding: Students will demonstrate comprehension of the various aspects of educational management such as organizational structure, decision-making processes, and resource allocation.
3. Applying: Students will apply their knowledge of different types of planning in educational management including micro and macro planning, perspective planning, and long-term planning to real-world scenarios.
4. Analyzing: Students will analyze the strengths and weaknesses of institutional planning and its impact on the overall effectiveness of educational institutions.
5. Evaluating: Students will assess the importance of effective educational management in achieving organizational goals and objectives.
6. Creating: Students will develop strategies for enhancing educational management practices to improve the quality of teaching and learning in educational institutions.