

English Literature - Drama

Course Outcome:

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Remember: Identify the characteristics of Tragedy in English Literature, including the concept of Tragic Hero, Tragic Flaw, Conflict, Hubris, and Irony.
2. Understand: Analyze the elements of Tragedy in different plays, recognizing how they contribute to the overall theme and impact of the work.
3. Apply: Evaluate the use of Tragic elements in Drama, discussing their significance and effects on characters, plot, and audience.
4. Analyze: Compare and contrast different types of Drama, focusing on the distinctions between Tragedy, Comedy, High Comedy, Low Comedy, Slapstick, and Comic Relief.
5. Evaluate: Critically assess the effectiveness of Tragic and Comic elements in various literary works, considering the author's intentions and the impact on the reader or viewer.
6. Create: Demonstrate an understanding of the principles of Tragedy and Comedy by writing original pieces that incorporate these elements effectively.

Select Language

Powered by  Google Translate

