

HISTORY OF INDIA C.1707 CE TO 1950 CE (MINOR PAPER)

1. Remembering:

- Recall key events, dates, and figures in Indian history from 1707 CE to 1950 CE.
- Identify major economic, social, and political changes in India during this time period.

2. Understanding:

- Explain the role of the East India Company in the colonization of India.
- Compare and contrast the economy, social structure, and governance before and after the arrival of the East India Company.
- Understand the impact of peasant and tribal movements on colonial rule.

3. Applying:

- Analyze the factors that led to the growth of nationalism in India post-1857.
- Evaluate the strategies and methods employed by Indian revolutionaries in their fight against colonial rule.
- Apply historical knowledge to interpret the significance of Gandhi's role in the Indian independence movement.

4. Analyzing:

- Examine the causes and consequences of significant events such as the Revolt of 1857.
- Critically analyze the policies and actions of the British colonial government in India.
- Compare the approaches of different leaders, organizations, and movements in the Indian freedom struggle.

5. Evaluating:

- Critically assess the impact of British colonization on the Indian economy, society, and culture.
- Evaluate the effectiveness of nonviolent resistance and civil disobedience in achieving independence.
- Judge the role of key individuals and groups in shaping the course of Indian history.

6. Creating:

- Develop a thesis or argument about the evolution of nationalism in India.
- Propose alternative strategies or actions that could have been taken by Indian leaders to achieve independence.
- Design a timeline or visual representation highlighting key milestones in India's journey from 1707 CE to 1950 CE.

Select Language ▼

Powered by  Google Translate

