

INDIA AND THE WORLD

Course Outcome:

At the end of this course, students will be able to:

1. Remember: Recall the key historical events and milestones in the evolution of India's foreign policy, including the principles of nonalignment and the impact of the Cold War on Indian foreign relations.
2. Understand: Analyze the factors that have shaped India's defence policy, including its strategic partnerships, military capabilities, and security challenges.
3. Apply: Evaluate India's nuclear policy in the context of global disarmament efforts, nuclear proliferation challenges, and regional security dynamics.
4. Analyze: Examine India's relationships with regional organizations such as SAARC and ASEAN, and assess the benefits and challenges of such partnerships for India's foreign policy objectives.
5. Evaluate: Critically assess India's foreign policy towards its neighbors, including Pakistan, China, and other South Asian countries, and analyze the impact of regional conflicts and cooperation on India's security and diplomatic initiatives.
6. Create: Develop a new foreign policy strategy for India that takes into account emerging global trends, changing geopolitical dynamics, and India's national interests and priorities.

Overall, students will gain a comprehensive understanding of India's foreign policy objectives, strategies, and challenges, and be able to propose innovative solutions and approaches to navigate the complex international landscape.

Select Language ▼

Powered by  Google Translate

