

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS: THEORIES AND ISSUES

---

Course Outcome:

1. Remembering:

- Recall key concepts and theories in international relations and their relevance to understanding global politics.
- Summarize the approaches to the study of Indian politics, migration, refugee issues, citizenship, identity politics, local governance in India, and local governance in West Bengal.

2. Understanding:

- Explain the major theories and issues in international relations and critically assess their applicability in different contexts.
- Analyze the key factors influencing migration, refugee crises, citizenship rights, and identity politics in contemporary world politics.

3. Applying:

- Apply theories of international relations to analyze and interpret real-world events and case studies related to Indian politics, migration, refugee issues, citizenship, and identity politics.
- Evaluate the role of local governance in India and West Bengal in addressing socio-political dynamics and challenges.

4. Analyzing:

- Analyze the complexities of global governance structures and their impact on state sovereignty, human rights, and global security.
- Critically examine the implications of migration, refugee crises, citizenship rights, and identity politics on international relations and state policies.

5. Evaluating:

- Evaluate the strengths and limitations of different theoretical approaches to understanding international relations and their practical implications.
- Assess the effectiveness of local governance mechanisms in India and West Bengal in promoting inclusive development and resolving governance issues.

6. Creating:

- Develop innovative solutions to address global challenges related to migration, refugees, citizenship rights, and identity politics, drawing on theoretical insights from international relations.
- Propose policy recommendations for strengthening local governance structures in India and West Bengal to enhance democracy, social justice, and effective public administration.

Select Language ▼

Powered by  Google Translate

