

Introduction to Human Rights

1. Remembering: Recall the evolution and historical development of Human Rights, including the three generations of Rights.
2. Understanding: Explain the difference between a rights-based system and a duty-based system, and analyze the correlation between rights and duties.
3. Applying: Implement knowledge of different theories related to Human Rights in real-life scenarios.
4. Analyzing: Compare and contrast the United Nations' role in promoting Human Rights and evaluate UN instruments on human rights.
5. Evaluating: Assess the significance of International Humanitarian Law in protecting and promoting Human Rights globally.
6. Creating: Develop strategies for advocating and upholding Human Rights at individual, community, and global levels.

