The first part of the programme began with some songs like ‘Amader Chuti Chuti’ sung by the volunteers which were the ice breakers as the children also joined in. This was followed by a brief talk on the significance of Raksha Bandhan and Independence Day by the NSS Director who gave a deeper understanding of the Raksha Bandhan festival. She stressed on the fact that every relationship came with a responsibility and that the volunteers have begun a relationship with the village children and hence it was their responsibility to ensure that these children were protected from all forms of exploitation and received quality education. The volunteers then tied the Rakhies to the children and it was a very special moment for both – the volunteers and the children. The volunteers conducted some games for the children which they participated in and enjoyed and bonded with the volunteers. The second part of the programme focussed on Independence Day. The volunteers began by singing some patriotic songs and gave a brief on some of the freedom fighters. With the help of the Ward Counsellor, this school was selected where the NSS volunteers conducted the following programmes: Raksha Bandhan &amp; International Youth Day: On the occasion of International Youth Day, the NSS volunteers made the day meaningful by celebrating Raksha Bandhan with these children. The NSS student president shared about the significance of this day with everyone present. Clubbing it with Raksha Bandhan where relationship coupled with responsibility was the focus, the NSS volunteers tied Rakhis to the children giving them a sense of belongingness. This was followed by some entertainment activities. Independence Day celebration Since Independence Day was just two days away, the volunteers shared with the children in a very simple way, the role our freedom fighters played during our Freedom struggle and how they needed to be remembered with respect. The volunteers then distributed the National Flags to the children, sang a few patriotic songs and concluded the programme with serving refreshments to all present. The Headmaster of the school and the teachers were quite impressed with the volunteers and wanted them to visit the school more often to motivate the children. Date: 13th August 2022 Venue: Rural campus at Raghobpur Theme: Independence Day celebration - The importance of Financial independence for rural women It was felt that celebrating Independence Day by hoisting the National Flag and singing patriotic songs was not enough. Therefore, on this occasion, a capacity building session was organised for the women of the adopted villages, the theme being 'The importance of financial independence for rural women'. The objective was to help women become economically independent and have control over their earnings. On 13th August 2022, around 50 women from 4 adopted villages (Bakeswar, Debipur, Nurshikdarchowk and Shalpurkur) attended this session. 10 student volunteers were also part of the session. The resource person for this session was Dr. Sanjib Kumar Basu – Associate Professor and Dean of M. Com at St. Xavier's College (Autonomous), Kolkata. The capacity building session stressed on financial literacy. It was observed that the gender gap in usage of banking services was high in rural parts of India as rural women lacked financial literacy. Most rural women have minimal or no access to financial information, thereby restricting them from accessing financial services, especially when it is digital. Therefore, the need was felt to educate these rural women on how to avail banking services, selected schemes, how to operate credit and debit cards with safety and most importantly how to have control over their bank accounts and operate it themselves rather than any other member of the family. During the session, the women were also encouraged to begin their own income generation activity. The College was willing to give them training on specific skills like cultivation of beetle leaves which was much in demand, mushroom cultivation, organic farming, and pisciculture, pen making etc. The women clarified their doubts and the capacity building exercise was an eye opener to the women. It was decided that the NSS would conduct follow up sessions in their respective villages and provide hand holding support to these women so that they become financially literate and financially independent.

	Towards the end of the session, Lilufa Pailan from Shalpokur village shared, “Amar toh smart phone nei je ami phone eh bank er katha ta dekhete parbo, kintu ami aaj ja shiklam, amar meye ke giye bolbo jate or bhyabishoteh o nijer artho r upor adhikar thaake” (I don't have a smart phone so I will not be able to check my bank account on my phone. However, whatever I learnt today, I will share with my daughter, so that in future, she is able to have right over her money). Rinki Dolui, a 3rd year student shared, “I always thought digital banking is risky and discouraged everyone from doing it, but today I learnt about the various security steps that are there to protect our account from being hacked”. The session ended with distributing the National Flags to everyone and taking a pledge that every woman would become financially independent and have control over their own earnings. Date: 14th August 2022 Venue: Nurshikdarchowk village Theme: Independence Day Celebration On 14th August 2022, around 20 volunteers celebrated Independence Day with 70 children from Nurshikdarchowk village. This was the first visit after a gap of two years. Hence the children very overjoyed to meet the volunteers and so were the volunteers. A brief talk on the importance of Independence Day was given to the children. This was followed by a series of games conducted by the volunteers that made the children aware about various freedom fighters and independence related facts. During the programme, the children sang songs, performed dance numbers, yoga, recitations which was heart-warming to watch. The National Flags were distributed to all present. The programme concluded with distribution of refreshments to all. Various online submissions by volunteers to celebrate Har Ghar Tiranga Campaign Around 16 volunteers pinned digital flags at www.harghartiranga.in and received their certificates. 	Venue: Rural campus at Raghampur  Theme: Independence Day celebration  - The importance of Financial independence for rural women It was felt that celebrating Independence Day by hoisting the National Flag and singing patriotic songs was not enough. Therefore, on this occasion, a capacity building session was organised for the women of the adopted villages, the theme being ‘The importance of financial independence for rural women’. The objective was to help women become economically independent and have control over their earnings. On 13th August 2022, around 50 women from 4 adopted villages (Bakeswar, Debipur, Nurshikdarchowk and Shalpokur) attended this session. 10 student volunteers were also part of the session. The resource person for this session was Dr. Sanjib Kumar Basu – Associate Professor and Dean of M. Com at St. Xavier’s College (Autonomous), Kolkata. The capacity building session stressed on financial literacy. It was observed that the gender gap in usage of banking services was high in rural parts of India as rural women lacked financial literacy. Most rural women have minimal or no access to financial information, thereby restricting them from accessing financial services, especially when it is digital. Therefore, the need was felt to educate these rural women on how to avail banking services, selected schemes, how to operate credit and debit cards with safety and most importantly how to have control over their bank accounts and operate it themselves rather than any other member of the family. During the session, the women were also encouraged to begin their own income generation activity. The College was willing to give them training on specific skills like cultivation of beetle leaves which was much in demand, mushroom cultivation, organic farming, and pisciculture, pen making etc. The women clarified their doubts and the capacity building exercise was an eye opener to the women. It was decided that the NSS would conduct follow up sessions in their respective villages and provide hand holding support to these women so that they become financially literate and financially independent. Towards the end of the session, Lilufa Pailan from Shalpokur village shared, “Amar toh smart phone nei je ami phone eh bank er katha ta dekhite parbo, kintu ami aaj ja shiklam, amar meye ke giye bolbo jate or bhyabishoteh o nijer artho r upor adhikar thaake” (I don’t have a smart phone so I will not be able to check my bank account on my phone. However, whatever I learnt today, I will share with my daughter, so that in future, she is able to have right over her money). Rinki Dolui, a 3rd year student shared, “I always thought digital banking is risky and discouraged everyone from doing it, but today I learnt about the various security steps that are there to protect our account from being hacked”. The session ended with distributing the National Flags to everyone and taking a pledge that every woman would become financially independent and have control over their own earnings.

Local Air Quality Management Plan (LAMP) in Kolkata

In a unique initiative, West Bengal Pollution Control Board has embarked upon a new initiative to understand and mitigate the localised pollution sources in some parts of Kolkata. The project titled “Local Air Quality Management Plan (LAMP)” aims to carry out air quality modelling and monitoring at the Hyperlocal Scale for Identifying Dispersed and Continuous Sources. This will be a yearlong collaborative research project led by IIT Delhi, along with Environmental Defense Fund (EDF) and St. Xavier's College (Autonomous). Its objectives include understanding the local source contribution and help WBPCB in evaluating the efficacy of interventions at local scale. Mobile sensors will be deployed in bus routes running through the north and central Kolkata and also in narrow alleys for capturing the pollution sources of city. The variability of PM<sub>2.5</sub> measured by the static and mobile sensors will be used to understand the localised and often inconspicuous sources in the localities. Dispersion modelling will be carried out identify source contribution. The project will demonstrate the utility of hyperlocal measurements of air quality, in order to help augment Kolkata's efforts towards reaching the goals set forth under the National Clean Air Programme.

St. Xavier's College (Autonomous), Kolkata and Environmental Defense Fund (EDF) have entered into MOU for collaborating towards expanding Knowledge in the domains of air quality, climate change, and low carbon development. This MOU will help in capacity building of St. Xavier's College in the form of practical training for students, field experiments, workshops and internships overseen by IIT Delhi and EDF. IIT Delhi is the technical and scientific partner in this project. West Bengal Pollution Control Board (WBPCB) is the knowledge partner and will provide support in execution of the project.

Special Lecture on 'Vivekananda: A New Vision'

Vivekananda is a seminal figure of the global nineteenth century, but the pattern of his fame does not match his influence. Here he is a household name, but in the west few have heard of him. Why this is so goes to the heart of his life, his ideas, and his programme. I want to explain why he both challenged and resonated in many different audiences, from respectable New Englanders to Swedish actresses. Rather than reinforcing the tired vision of Vivekananda as the first to unlock eastern spirituality for a materialist west, I want to focus on the paradoxes and subtleties of his teachings. I will also investigate his relationship to nationalism, anti-colonialism, and Karma yoga. However, I will reinterpret his impact by integrating the "Indian Vivekananda" with the "global guru" by reconsidering his relationship to women, global intellectual history, and universalism in the far-do-aside world.

In keeping with this tradition the 8th Fr. Verstraeten Memorial Lecture was conducted on 9th February, 2023, at the Fr. Depelchin Auditorium, from 3pm onwards. Professor Gayatri Banerjee, was our host for this event. The lecture was inaugurated and the inaugural address was delivered by Father Principal, Rev. Dr. Dominic Savio, SJ. It was followed by a speech from Dr. Indranath Chaudhuri, Head, Department of Physics. Dr. Shibaji Banerjee, introduced our esteemed speaker, Br. Guy Consolmagno, SJ, Director of the Vatican Observatory and the Pope's Astronomer, who joined us via a Zoom call. Br. Guy Consolmagno was felicitated, albeit virtually, by Father Principal and the Department of Physics. The topic for this lecture, "What's surfacing on Beenu?", was a gripping and compelling one. The NASA mission to asteroid Beenu, OSIRIS-Rex, brought back samples from its surfaces, which are being tested to understand and determine the composition and properties of the asteroid. Furthermore, he went on to explain the different types of asteroids, meteorites in space, and their properties and

	compositions. The detection of asteroids and the detailed study of their samples was a particularly engrossing topic. Br. Guy Consolmagno even spoke about the various missions to different asteroids and the threats these asteroids may pose to Earth. Our esteemed speaker broke down the complex topics into smaller, easier parts, which could be understood by one and all. The lecture was followed by an enthralling QnA session conducted by Dr. Suparna Roychowdhury. Many inquisitive students and even professors asked their questions which our speaker, very kindly, answered. The vote of thanks was given by Dr. Subhankar Ghosh. Refreshments and beverages were distributed at the end of the lecture.

Postgraduate & Research Department of Political Science organised “Sansad’ 2023”. Events on: Youth Parliament & Press Committee.

SANSAD ’23: Manifesting the Democratic Spirit

Paksh, Vipaksh aur Nishpaksh. The saga of Indian democracy, unfurled and unleashed.

Drawing students to ‘Think. Analyze. Argue’ – the Postgraduate and Research Department of Political Science launched the fourth edition, yet more significantly, the first intercollege affair for her flagship exhibit: SANSAD. Following months of planning, motivating volunteers, wooing sponsors, and rallying participants, Sansad ’23 culminated in two simultaneous events: The Youth Parliament and the Press Committee, on the 17th and 18th of February, 2023. Aimed at cultivating the ‘the leaders of our tomorrows’, Sansad is a seamless enactment and pioneer in higher standards of government, opposition, and press interaction in the Indian polity. While the set agenda for Sansad ’23 was the deliberation upon ‘The Indian Law regarding Classification and Identification of Criminal Detainees and Convicts’ with reference to the Criminal Procedure (Identification) Act 2022, themes of the human rights, right to privacy, criminal investigation, punitive politics, and freedom of dissent, provided multi and inter-dimensional deliberations in proceedings. The days unwrapped before the presence of the entire departmental student body and faculty, with both internal and external delegates competing in the two events.

The proceedings were unveiled following an august inauguration ceremony, with the release of Politique 2022-2023, and addresses by the Vice-Principal of Arts and Science, Prof. da' Silva and the Head of the department of Political Science, Prof. Dr. Jhumpa Mukherjee.

Delegates to the Youth Parliament evoked with tremendous vigor their portfolios; bringing needed character and resolve into parliamentary proceedings though the zero hour, question hour and speeches before the floor, on both days. The committee was distinguished in its mature delivery and mindful articulation of facts, figures, and certainly rhetoric. Deliberations went back-and-forth to give room to for though and retrospection. Though the agenda was never settled upon, the sheer charisma and conviction put on display the efforts and talents of the participants.

The fourth pillar of democracy was well represented in the Press Committee. In line with house policy, the press delegates each produced an opinion piece on the agenda, and corresponding beat articles on both days of parliamentary proceedings. The committee engaged in a separate debate on the motion of 'Elon Musk's takeover of Twitter is a step towards the Freedom of Speech on Social Media', whereupon both proponents and opponents sparred through three engagements: a round robin, questioning session and the summation speech.

The distinct motives of the government, opposition and press came to forefront during heightened tensions of the press conferences. Personalities clashed to the amusement and cheer of the audience, with oration, drama, and theatrics, all at play. Yet these hostilities only bore competitive sportsmanship, with all animosity was forsaken, forgiven in fellowship during lunch and post-event greets.

The valedictory ceremony propelled participant anticipation and audience speculation; with the ultimate victors being the inspired Indian demos. Sansad serves as an exemplar of democratic discourse and civil virtues. Sabhasado sadan samapth hua! Sansad '23 was concluded with heartfelt gratitude for the robust participants, lively audience, steadfast adjudicators, and the tireless organizing committee for the resounding success in celebrating democracy.

It was dreamt big, and so it was lived big.

Name of the Event- A literary session of 'Sahajpath', Bengali Literary Club of Raghobpur Campus
Date – 1.3.2023
In Charge- Rini Gangopadhyay, Madhumita Acharya, Sudakshina Basu

Participant- Students of Raghampur Campus
Venu- Raghampur Campus, St. Xavier's College (Autonomous), Kolkata

Outcome-

The session of 'Sahajpath' tries to give a platform to the students who practice some creative writing. It may be a poem, may be a short story, short play, or any essay. The writer reads his/ her write up and then the audience discuss about the writing in different perspective. It inspires the young writer as well as makes him/ her aware with the boundaries also.

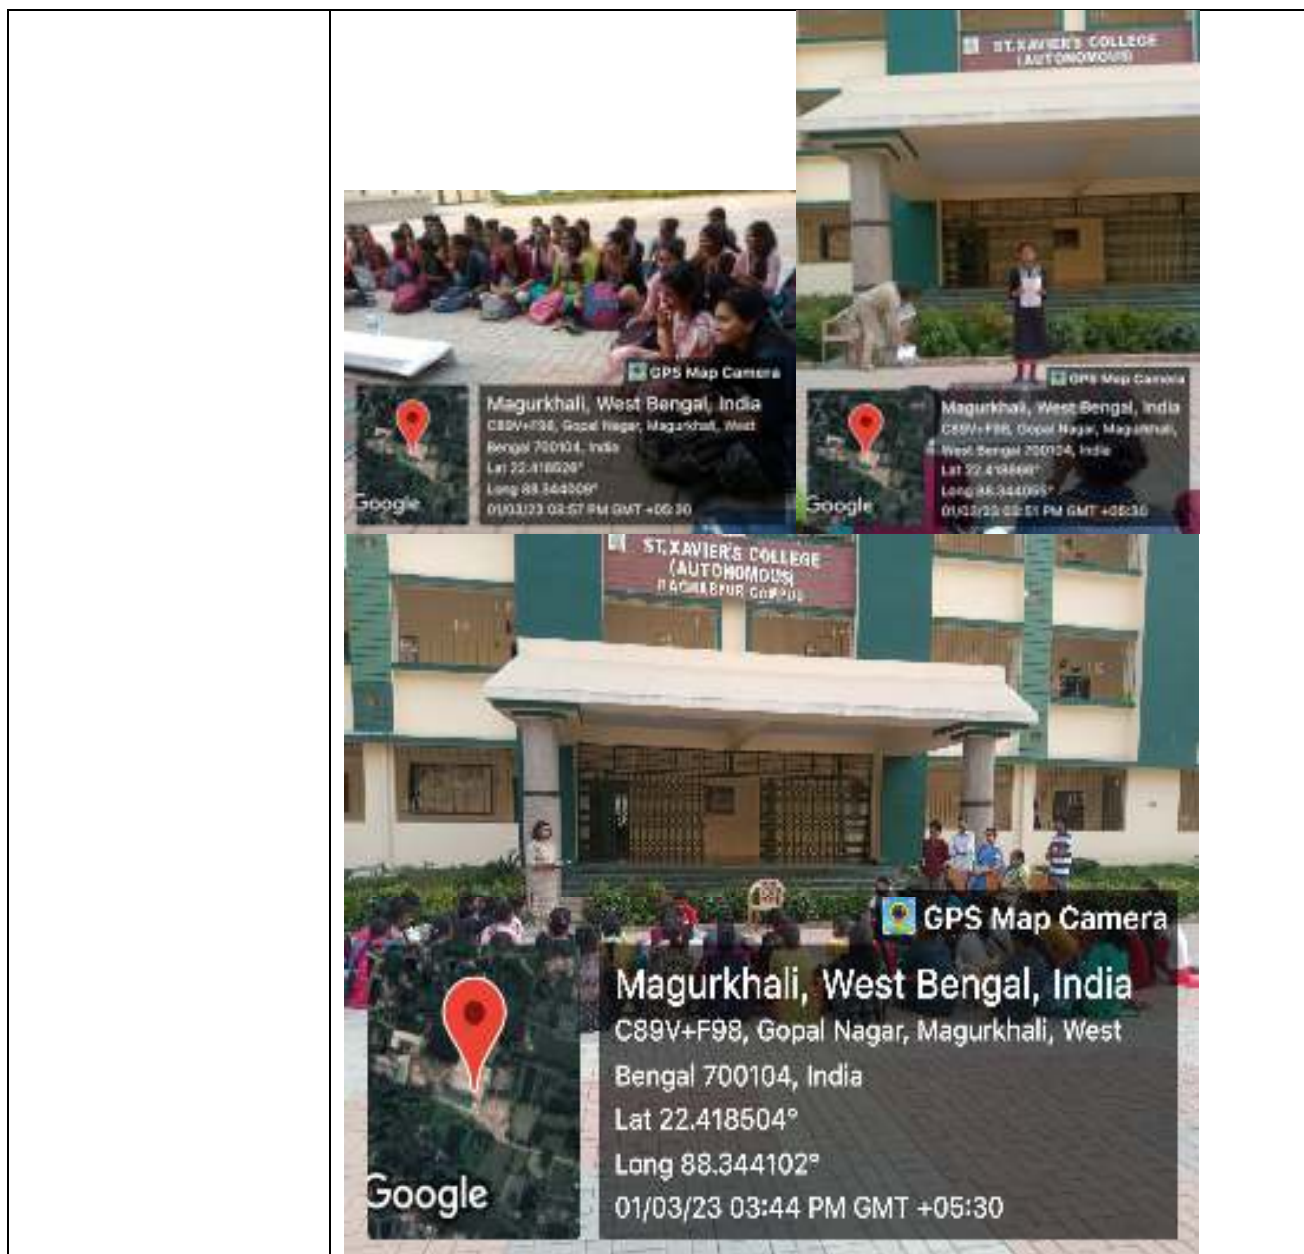

One of our students, Samiran, had written a song on our club, 'Ami Sahajpathar deshe jabo'. Though he is now an old Xavierian, he came and open the session with that song. Then the students from all the department, both of PG and Ug courses read out their write ups. We were surprised to see the maturity in the youngsters. The literary sense and creativity were much appreciated by the teachers present there.

Youth engagement session at Xavier's

Poulami.Roy@timesgroup.com

Kolkata: St. Xavier's College (Autonomous), Kolkata organised T20 Youth Engagement event on Monday on the topic — 'Macroeconomic Policy Coherence, Global Trade and Livelihoods.'

Scholars and students of graduation and post-graduation courses from economics, political science departments and other academic disciplines joined the event, which aimed at acquainting the students with the working of the G20 as well as the impact and significance of the T20 platform.

The Observer Research Foundation (ORF), which was established in 1990 to serve as independent think tank based in Delhi, had organised this youth engagement session not only to familiarise students with the T20 but also to give them an idea about economic policies.

The event started with the welcome address by the principal of St Xavier's College Dominic Savio. He said, "Policies should be treated like adding a spice to an already existing mixture of spices. The efficacy of the policy is determined by the final taste of the mixture. If the flavour suits every individual's palate, it is a good policy."

The welcome address was followed by a presentation on T20 by associate fellow of ORF, Pratnashree Basu, who focused on exploring new pathways to the sustainable development goals. Dr B.R. Ambedkar School of Economics University, Bengaluru, vice chancellor N. R. Bhanumurthy spoke on 'Macroeconomics, Trade and Livelihoods: Policy Coherence and International Coordination. Director at ORF Nilanjan Ghosh spoke on geopolitics, geoeconomics and Sustainomics of India's growth Story.

TITLE: EINSTEIN'S BIGGEST BLUNDER?

Abstract: In 1917, Albert Einstein inserted a term called the cosmological constant into his theory of general relativity to predict a stationary universe. A decade later, when it became clear that our Universe was expanding, Einstein abandoned the constant, calling it the 'biggest blunder' of his life. However, lately, Einstein's biggest blunder has made a dramatic comeback with scientists discovering an accelerating Universe some form of energy density counteracting gravity. So, is really the cosmological constant the mysterious 'dark energy' or is it something else? How can we hope to unravel this mystery?

5 April 2023	Department of History (Raghabpur) organised The half-Day state level seminar on “Tides of Revolution; Revolts, Nationalism and Beyond in the colonial India” .

REPORT ON THE HALF-DAY STATE LEVEL SEMINAR ORGANIZED BY THE DEPT OF HISTORY

Seminar Title- Tides of Revolution: Revolt, Nationalism and Beyond in the colonial India

Organized by – Department of History

Date of Seminar- 05/04/2023

Venue- Raghampur Campus

Idea of the Seminar

Throughout the nineteenth and twentieth centuries, Indian history saw the emergence of various movements majority of which contributed vehemently to the development of the anti-British struggle. In this year, on occasion of the 75th year of Indian independence, we can look back to some of the important revolts and movements as well as their various facets. The proposed seminar thus, tried to throw light on two such significant events in the history of India, both in the pre-nationalist and national movement phase e.g. the revolt of 1857, and the Swadeshi movement. The speakers discussed different features of these movements and through these, we were able to pay our homage to those persons whose sacrifice and contribution enabled Indian people to develop their consciousness and fight for their own rights.

Below I provide the details of the speakers and their topics for presentation-

1. Dr. Manu Datta, Assistant Prof., Department of History, Aliah University, Kolkata- The Great Revolt of 1857 and the Idea of Total War in India.
2. Dr. Minakshi Pandit, Assistant Prof., Department of History, Marham College, Bardhaman- Performing Swadeshi: Practicing Everyday Nationalism in Bengal, 1905-1912

The subjects of the presentations were interesting, informative and extremely crucial for creating awareness about our past history of revolution. The topics were directly related to the syllabus of SEMESTERS IV and VI particularly. The discussion, I am hopeful, was enormously fruitful for the students. 15 students from three semesters participated as volunteers. Students were given two hours credits for participation and one extra hour credit for volunteers.

Students of three semesters have enthusiastically participated. Even some students from Bengali P.G. also came to attend the lectures. Besides the professors of the History department, some professors of the Bengali and Political Science departments were also present in the seminar.

I am thankful to the revered Father Principal and Father Vice Principal for their constant support and encouragement. I thank my fellow colleagues and students for their kind cooperation in making the seminar a success.

Below some pictures of the seminar are attached for your perusal-

Thanking You

1 Search engines are the most popular way to find information on the Internet. They are designed to help you find what you need quickly and easily. Some of the most popular search engines are Google, Yahoo!, and Microsoft. They all have their own unique features and search algorithms. For example, Google is known for its fast and accurate search results, while Yahoo! is known for its comprehensive database of information. Microsoft's search engine, Bing, is also a popular choice for many users. Each search engine has its own strengths and weaknesses, so it's important to know which one to use for your needs. If you're looking for a specific piece of information, a search engine can be a very helpful tool. However, it's also important to be aware of the potential risks of using search engines, such as privacy concerns and the possibility of encountering malicious websites. By understanding how search engines work and taking appropriate precautions, you can use them safely and effectively to find the information you need.

Bengal archers shine

Times News Network

Kolkata: Bengal archers hogged the limelight as India ended up fifth in the medal standings with seven medals — six silver and one bronze in the Asia Cup Stage 3 that concluded in Singapore on Saturday.

The Bengal archers of Ruma Biswas, Aditi Jaiswal and Ayel Sarkar picked up four medals with Biswas winning two in the women's recurve category.

ASIA CUP

While Jaiswal and Sarkar train at the Dola and Rahul Banerjee Sports Foundation (DRBSF) and KP Training Academy, Biswas has been a find of the Bengal Archery Academy in Jhargam.

The women's team of Riddhi Biswas and Jaiswal, who qualified third in the ranking round, went down to powerhouse Korea 3-5 in the final.

Biswas then faltered against

China's AN Qian to go down 2-6 in the recurve individual final.

The Indian men's recurve side of Sarkar, Parth Salunkhe and Rohit Kumar lost 1-6 (52-64, 57-57, 52-57) to China. Sarkar missed out on another medal as he along with Ridhi lost to their Uzbekistan rivals 1-5 in recurve mixed team bronze-medal play-off match.

Parth conceded his men's recurve gold medal match to Qi Xiangshuo of China 2-6.

Pragati won a bronze defeating her teammate Deepshikha 147-146 in the compound women's individual third-place playoff. 24th June, 2023

CONGRATULATIONS!

Congratulations to Ahana Dasgupta, Semester-VI student from the Microbiology Department, who has been granted the Erasmus Mundus Joint Master's Scholarship Programme.

Erasmus Mundus Joint Master's scholarships are highly sought after due to their prestigious nature and numerous benefits. The scholarships provide an opportunity for students from around the world to study in Europe, offering a chance to immerse themselves in diverse cultures and educational systems. However, the competition for these scholarships is intense, as they are limited in number and attract top-notch candidates.

The scholarship offers around 1400 Euros per month during the programme period to cover living, accommodation and travel expenses. It also bears the University tuition and health insurance expenses.

Ahana will receive 16500 euros as Erasmus Mundus Scholarship for studying Masters in Europe.
