

Journeys and Cultures of Capital

1. Define key concepts and theories related to Cultures of Capitalism, Global Inequalities, Religion, Environment, and Sustainability in a global context.
2. Analyze and evaluate the impact of capitalism on different cultures and societies around the world.
3. Compare and contrast the distribution of wealth and resources globally, highlighting inequalities and disparities.
4. Examine the role of religion in shaping economic practices and social structures in various regions.
5. Critically assess the challenges and opportunities for creating a more sustainable and environmentally conscious global economy.
6. Design and propose strategies for promoting social justice, equity, and sustainability in a global context.
7. Evaluate the ethical implications of capitalist practices on the environment, society, and future generations.
8. Synthesize information from diverse sources to develop informed perspectives on the intersections between culture, capitalism, and global issues.

Select Language ▼

Powered by Google Translate

