

Labour Migration and Livelihoods in India

---

Bloom's Taxonomy Course Outcome for Labour Migration and Livelihoods in India:

Remembering:

- Define the concept of migration systems and explain the factors influencing labour migration in India.
- Recall the characteristics of dual or segmented labour markets and their impact on migration patterns.
- List the key components of immigration policies in India and their effects on labour mobility.

Understanding:

- Summarize the key features of the world system mobility and its effects on labour migration in India.
- Explain the differences between rural-rural, rural-urban, and urban-rural migration patterns in the country.
- Analyze the factors contributing to women's migration for labour in India and their challenges.

Applying:

- Evaluate the impact of labour migration on rural economies and urban labour markets in India.
- Propose potential policy interventions to address the issues faced by migrant workers, especially women.
- Develop strategies for promoting sustainable livelihoods for migrant workers in India.

Analyzing:

- Compare and contrast different types of migration systems and their implications for labour mobility in India.
- Critically evaluate the effectiveness of immigration policies in regulating labour migration in the country.
- Identify the social, economic, and political factors influencing labour migration within India.

Evaluating:

- Assess the strengths and weaknesses of dual or segmented labour markets in India and their impact on migrant workers.
- Judge the effectiveness of existing policies in protecting the rights of migrant workers and promoting inclusive growth.
- Formulate recommendations for improving labour migration governance and enhancing the livelihoods of migrant workers in India.

Creating:

- Design a comprehensive framework for addressing the challenges of labour migration and livelihoods in India.
- Develop a proposal for a new immigration policy that promotes fair and ethical labour practices for migrant workers.
- Create a community-based initiative aimed at supporting the integration of migrants into host communities in India.

Select Language ▼

Powered by  Google Translate

