

MIL (ENGLISH) MODERN INDIAN LANGUAGE (ALTERNATIVE ENGLISH) ABILITY ENHANCEMENT MIL/ENGLISH

Course Outcome for MIL (English) with focus on Literature, Short Stories, Language, Monologue, Dialogue writing, Group discussion, Summary and paraphrasing, Letter and Report writing:

1. Knowledge:

- Identify and analyze themes, characters, and literary devices in various works of literature.
- Demonstrate an understanding of different genres of literature and their conventions.
- Recognize the cultural and social contexts in which literary works are written.

2. Comprehension:

- Summarize and paraphrase literary texts to demonstrate understanding.
- Interpret and analyze the meaning of literary works through close reading and critical thinking.
- Understand and appreciate the nuances of language and style in literature.

3. Application:

- Write engaging and coherent monologues and dialogues to express thoughts and ideas effectively.
- Participate in group discussions, offering insights and perspectives on literary works and contemporary issues.
- Apply language skills in creative writing, including short stories and poetry.

4. Analysis:

- Analyze and evaluate the effectiveness of different writing styles and techniques.
- Critically examine the messages and themes conveyed in literary works.
- Compare and contrast different interpretations of a text through discussion and analysis.

5. Evaluation:

- Evaluate one's own writing for clarity, coherence, and effectiveness.
- Assess the strengths and weaknesses of arguments presented in group discussions.
- Critically evaluate the literary merit of a work based on criteria such as originality, creativity, and impact.

6. Creation:

- Write clear and concise letters and reports for various purposes and audiences.
- Produce original and creative literary works, demonstrating flair for language and storytelling.
- Develop and present coherent and persuasive arguments in written and oral form.

Select Language ▼

Powered by  Google Translate

