

Course Outcome for Modern Indian Language 2 - HINDI - 2:

1. Understand the concept of news, its definition, types, and sources. (Knowledge)
2. Identify and explain the essential elements/components of news. (Comprehension)
3. Analyze different types of news like factual, analytical, and opinionated. (Analysis)
4. Evaluate the process of news gathering, editing, and writing. (Evaluation)
5. Demonstrate the principles and guidelines of news reporting and writing. (Application)
6. Interpret and critically analyze different forms of news such as investigative, interpretative, and provocative news. (Evaluation)
7. Define the role and responsibilities of a journalist in news reporting. (Knowledge)
8. Create news reports with accuracy, objectivity, and ethical considerations. (Synthesis)
9. Develop effective communication skills for conducting interviews, categorizing news, editing, and maintaining journalistic integrity. (Application)
10. Demonstrate the ability to categorize information, prioritize news, and exhibit professional behavior in journalism. (Synthesis)

Overall, after completing the course, students should be able to understand, analyze, evaluate, and effectively apply the principles and practices of news reporting and journalism in Hindi.

Select Language ▼

Powered by Google Translate

