PUBLIC POLICY IN INDIA

---

1. Remembering:
- Identify the key structures and processes involved in public policy making in India.
- Recall the different stages of policy implementation and the challenges faced in the process.
- Recognize the key features of education policy, gender and social protection policy, environmental policy, public health policy in India.

2. Understanding:
- Explain the current trends in public policy making in India.
- Interpret the framework of policy implementation and the challenges faced in different sectors.
- Discuss the significance of education policy, gender and social protection policy, environmental policy, public health policy in the Indian context.

3. Applying:
- Analyze the impact of public policies on different sectors and stakeholders in India.
- Evaluate the effectiveness of policy implementation frameworks in addressing societal issues.
- Propose solutions for overcoming challenges in implementing education policy, gender and social protection policy, environmental policy, public health policy.

4. Analyzing:
- Compare and contrast the public policy structures and processes in India with those of other countries.
- Critically analyze the gaps and inefficiencies in the implementation of various policies in India.
- Examine the intersectionality of different policy areas and their implications on overall societal development.

5. Evaluating:
- Assess the success and failures of public policies in addressing key issues in India.
- Judge the effectiveness of different policy implementation strategies in achieving desired outcomes.
- Critique the impact of education policy, gender and social protection policy, environmental policy, public health policy on the well-being of Indian society.

6. Creating:
- Design innovative policy solutions to address emerging challenges in various sectors in India.
- Develop a comprehensive policy implementation framework for enhancing the effectiveness of public policies.
- Formulate strategies for promoting inclusivity, sustainability, and social equity in education policy, gender and social protection policy, environmental policy, public health policy in India.

Select Language

Powered by Google Translate