

Prof. Nandini Mukherjee

Prof. Nandini Mukherjee is an MA and M.Phil from Jadavpur University and has been a teacher of English Language and Literature since 1982. She has trained in teaching English as a Foreign and Second Language from the EFL Institute, Hamline University, USA. She retired from Calcutta International School as the Senior Principal in 2013. Currently, she is the Dean of Students at Garden High International School, under the aegis of the Satikanta Guha Foundation.

She has been Guest Faculty and Curriculum Coordinator for Communicative English at St. Xavier's College, Park Street Campus since 2009 and at Raghobpur Campus since 2014. She is also a visiting language consultant with College of Engineering and Management (CEMK), Kolaghat.

She is actively involved with educational projects such as debates, panel discussions and has participated in language seminars, workshops and training sessions held by the British Council, American Center, TCS, MN Dastur and other organizations in Calcutta. Her special academic interests are designing English Language curricula for specific purposes, content development and editorial work. She has worked with some leading publishing houses in the field of ELT. Her other interests include environmental issues with special focus on the preservation of wildlife.