Father Principal also unveiled the logo of the Centre and gave the inaugural address emphasizing the needs for gender studies in the society.

According to him, the purpose of the Centre for Gender Studies, St. Xavier's College (Autonomous), Kolkata, is to empower the students with knowledge and self-confidence and also to facilitate awareness amongst their family members, neighbors and others with regard to gender equality. The Centre for Gender Studies through its Legal Aid Cell will make people legally oriented about their rights. Father Principal also informed that the Centre intends to take up research projects to have a better understanding of the regional socio-economic and cultural components which are determining the lives of the people of South 24 Parganas.

Dr. Panchali Sen, Dr. Jhumpa Mukherjee, Dr. Farhat Bano, Dr. Shaswati Chowdhury in their brief talks described the importance of gender

	neutrality and the probable research approaches. The Vice Principal, Raghampur Campus, Rev. Fr. Johnson Padiyara in his speech talked on gender sensitization and the ways to facilitate gender friendly atmosphere. The Coordinator of the Centre for Gender Studies, Dr. Tinni Goswami gave the audience an exposure about the proposed journals of the Centre both in English and the vernacular and research projects which are under consideration. The students of Raghampur Campus performed a short cultural program on various gender related themes. The program ended with the Vote of Thanks by Dr. Sudakshina Basu, Assistant Professor, Bengali Department.
