

Themes and Issues in Western Historiography

1. Remembering: recall key historical events and figures from antiquity to the medieval period.
2. Understanding: explain the transformation of historiography in Medieval Europe and its impact on historical narratives.
3. Applying: analyze the different approaches to history writing during the Renaissance and evaluate their significance.
4. Analyzing: compare and contrast the ideals of Romanticism with the rise of historicism in shaping historical narratives.
5. Evaluating: assess the influence of Idealism, Liberalism, and Materialism on the development of historiography.
6. Creating: design a research project that incorporates methodologies and theories from the Annales school and explores their relevance in contemporary historical studies.
7. Analyzing: critique postmodern challenges to traditional historiography and evaluate their implications for the field.

Select Language

Powered by  Google Translate

