

Dr. Jhumpa Mukherjee is Assistant Professor of Political Science at St. Xavier's College, Kolkata. She completed her post-graduation in Political Science from the University of Burdwan with the distinction of First Class First. She was awarded the Sudarshan Singha Memorial Prize for the highest marks at the graduate level and was also given the National Scholarship for post graduate studies. She was also awarded the University Gold Medal and the Dharendra Jitendra Memorial Prize for her distinction at the post graduate level. She also holds a Post Graduate Diploma in Human Rights. She completed her PhD on the topic Multicultural Decentralization in India from the University of Burdwan. She is the author of Conflict Resolution in Multicultural Societies: The Indian Experience (Sage Publications, New Delhi and London 2014) and The World of Human Rights (Concept Publications, New Delhi 2014). She has contributed chapters in edited books and has published articles on contemporary social and political issues in national and international journals. She has participated in various national and international conferences as invited resource persons. She was part of an International Research Project with the University of Edinburgh, Scotland, UK, from 2015-2017. Her areas of research interest include South Asian politics, comparative federalism, social movements, gender and human rights.

Email: jhumpamukherjee@sxccal.edu